FIRE INSURANCE NOTICES, &c. SOUTHERN PROTECTION INSURANCE COMPANY,

ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA CAPITAL OVER 350,000 DOLLARS, AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING. The Charter of this Company offers more favorable advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in cash, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one-eighth of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the insured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the combination of the

CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospects of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States. All differences in settlement of losses, may be letermined by three disinterested arbitrators of the County where such loss happened, to be mutually chosen by the insured and the Company. DIRECTORS:

A message was received from the Board of Al dermen that they had passed the following order, and asked the concurrence of this Board: Ordered, that the Auditor issue his warrant on the Treasurer in favor of the widow of Henry L. Tarlton, deceased, for the sum of $25, being the amount of his present quarter's salary, as messenger of the Board of Aldermen. On motion, this Board concurred in the action of the Board of Aldermen. A bill entitled "An Act concerning the assessment and collection of Paving Taxes," was received from the B and of Aldermen, read a first and second time, and, on motion, the 23d rule was suspended, the bill read a third time, and passed. A communication from W. G. Atkinson was re-

the action of the Board of Aldermen, referring it to the Committee on General Laws, concurred in. A petition from George Bossart and W. V. Helmith, was received, read, and, on motion, referred to the Mayor. A report was received through the Board of Aldermen, from the Committee on Finance, to whom bad been referred the communication from the Corporation Attorney, in regard to the supersedens awarded by the Court of Appenls to the judgment obtained by the Corporation of Alexandria against the Orange and Alexandria Railroad Company, which was read, and the adoption by the Board of Aldermen of the following order, was concurred in : Ordered, That the Collector of Taxes for the Southern District be authorized and directed to defer levying his distress upon the property o the Orange and Alexandria Raiiroad Company. until the decision of the suit now pending in the Court of Appeals between the said Corporation of Alexandria and said Company shall be rendered, or until otherwise ordered by the City

On motion, Council then adjourned.

MISCELLANEOUS READING. THE LORD'S PRAYER-ITS UNIVERSAL APPROPRIATENESS.

In all countries and times, in all climes and ages, he who offers this prayer prays appropriately. It is alike adapted to all diversities of rank or condition. The prince in his palace can offer no better prayer; the peasant who gathers his family within his lowly cottage, for their daily worship, uses it with equal propriety. It equally describes the wants of the rich and poor, of the noble and the lowly. If you are at home with your family it is adapted to your condition; if sojourning with strangers, it suits your case as well .-If you are prosperous and happy, contented and grateful, the feelings of your heart are well expressed in the words of this prayer; if you are perplexed and sad, dejected and sorrowful, you cannot do better than to seek for the sweet spirit of filial faith and submission which prevades it. Whatever your condition may be; whatever afflictions, anxieties, or sorrows you may have, if you can sincerely offer up to God all these petitions, you are happy; and if God shall graciously bestow all that you thus ask, you will not lack any good thing.

This prayer never wears out; it never grows old; it never loses its freshness. You learned it when a little child, lisping its beautiful phrases one by one, attentively taking them from the lips of your mother. You recited it with no less interest in the strength of your manhood; and it will soothe and comfort you when your head shall be white, and your voice shall "turn again to childish tre-

The Saviour gave it to his disciples eighteen centuries ago. But with all the world's changes, through all the vicissitudes of history, the wants which yet press upon every human creature; the dependent condition in which every human creature is, the reverence, the humility, the faith, which every human creature should feel, are as well set forth in this prayer as when our Lord uttered it. It is so in every land, and it will be so Plaited and Britannia frame Castors, with cut | in all ages, until the end of time shall come.

They are not allowed to cross the threshold even to purchase a pair of shoes or a new gown for themselves, and must employ their friends outside to do this for Nor is the accommodation in-doors such as in any way to reconcile them to this close confinement. The work-room, in which ten or twelve of them are employed, is only void of arrangements for ventilation, which is the more to be deplored; as during the evening they have to encounter the heat and foul air of three flaming gas-burners, right over their heads, every door and window being shut, by which a breath of pure sir could possibly enter.
